

BBR World Finals (BBRWF) Qualifying Races & Short Go

Eligibility & Format: Contestants must have purchased a BBR Membership in 2023 and must have participated in eight (8) races as a standard member or six (6) races as a Gold Card member at BBR Qualifying Shows between January 1, 2023, and December 31, 2023. BBR may choose to issue special invitation(s) allowing a rider to be exempt from these requirements. A qualified member may enter on whatever horse they choose or as many horses as they wish. However, a horse/rider combination is considered one entry and horse may not be entered by the same rider more than once. Also, a horse may not be shown by more than one person unless both contestants are members of the same immediate family and in no case shall the horse be entered more than twice. Under no circumstances will sharing of horses be allowed if one of the family members has more than one horse entered.

World Finals will consist of two Qualifying Races (Race 1 in Coliseum & Race 2 in Barn 6) and a Short Go. Qualifying Races and the Short Go will be paid on a 5D format with half-second splits. The number of places paid in the Qualifying Races will be determined by the total number of entries.

Short Go qualification will be based on placing in the Qualifying Races. If a contestant places in any division on the same horse during both qualifying rounds, the person placing directly behind them in each race will be added to the short go.

A minimum of 300 contestants will qualify for the short go consisting of 30 contestants from each division of each qualifying race in each division. If a contestant qualifying for the short go chooses not to compete, no additional contestants will be added.

In addition to the contestants qualifying from the BBRWF Qualifying Races, additional contestants may be added to the short go based on "Straight Shots" awarded from BBR X-Tra Tour events.

The running order for the short go will be based on qualifying time and will be run slowest to fastest. "Straight Shot" contestants from each division will be inserted into the short go order prior to the qualifying round qualifiers from each respective division. Back numbers will be awarded based on short go running order with the first runner having the highest number and the last runner having back number one. Back numbers must be worn in the World Finals Short Go Round – NO EXCEPTIONS!

The Short Go will be a clean slate 5D format with half-second splits and will pay 20 places.

Better Barrel Races, LLC does not guarantee that entries will be available for purchase or that all contestants wishing to sell their entry will be matched with a buyer. Any refund checks will be issued by BBR on or about May 1, 2024.

A contestant may only enter the side-pot corresponding to his/her age. Times will be carried from your Race 1 and Race 2 runs to the side-pot races. The format will be a 5D with ½ sec splits for the age-based side-pots. Money will be split evenly between the two qualifying races and the number of places paid will be determined by the number of entries in each side-pot.
